

Contract for Services

The Calico Rock Museum Foundation (Foundation) and Calico Rock/Pineville Area Chamber of Commerce (Chamber) hereby agree as follows:

Foundation agrees to provide Chamber with file storage, promotional display space, and window signage. Foundation agrees to provide staffing support in fielding Chamber inquiries, receiving and handling mail, and mailing informational packets on request. Foundation shall not perform functions that should reasonably be performed by the members of the Chamber.

Chamber agrees to provide the contact person, contact phone number, date, and full information about every event before the event is advertised and Foundation begins receiving calls about the event.

As due consideration for services rendered, the Chamber will pay $100 per month to the Foundation. Chamber will pay the actual cost of printing and postage for mailings on behalf of the Chamber. Other support functions mutually agreed upon may be negotiated for additional financial consideration.

Monthly payment shall be due by the 15th of each month.

The parties agree that the term of this contract shall commence upon approval by the boards of each organization and the city council of Calico Rock, Arkansas and shall continue until 30 days written notice of termination is provided by either party. Failure to perform or dissolution of either organization shall be considered default and the contract shall be terminated immediately.
